"Moments to Remember"

THE WAG

1957

GRAHAM HIGH SCHOOL
GRAHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

Published by The 1957 WAG Staff

Foreword

"We're from Graham, we couldn't be prouder"..."Term papers due Monday"... pep rallies ... class meetings..."Who's gonna take you to the prom?"... and then, "Pomp and Circumstance"......

We of the 1957 WAG Staff have endeavored to bring you something that will indelibly stamp upon your mind cherished memories that might otherwise fade.

We would like to thank all the merchants and teachers for their co-operation in making possible the presentation of these "MOMENTS TO REMEMBER" at G. H. S.

Dedication

We, the student body of Graham High School, dedicate THE 1957 WAG to one whom we admire and respect as a teacher, coach, and friend; one who has taught us to strive for victory and success, always with fairness and a spirit of good sportsmanship. With earnest sincerity we thank Mr. Lou Roshelli.

Administration

Mr. N. G. Bryan, our principal, is always concerned with the interests of our students. Seniors particularly benefit from his help with college entrance applications, scholarships, and future careers.

Our school board members give freely of their time to work for a well-rounded school program for our students. The members are: Mr. W. F. Hadley; Mr. Marvin E. Yount, Jr.; Mrs. Roy King; Mr. Morris Burke; and Mr. James C. Swanner, Chairman.

Somehow the name "Sophomore" just gives one more confidence than he had as a Freshman. Our Sophomores did not have many projects as a class, but as individuals they will remember experiences this year when they really began to participate in student activities.

We'll Remember...

Our class well represented by majorettes. . .

Talent was not lacking in our class. . .

Studies became more important this year. . .

A high school student at last! Freshmen really had a time finding rooms and getting to class on time that first semester, but now they feel almost like "veterans". Although this year will hold many moments of bewilderment for Freshmen, they will be remembered as part of the thrill of becoming a member of the student body of G. H. S.

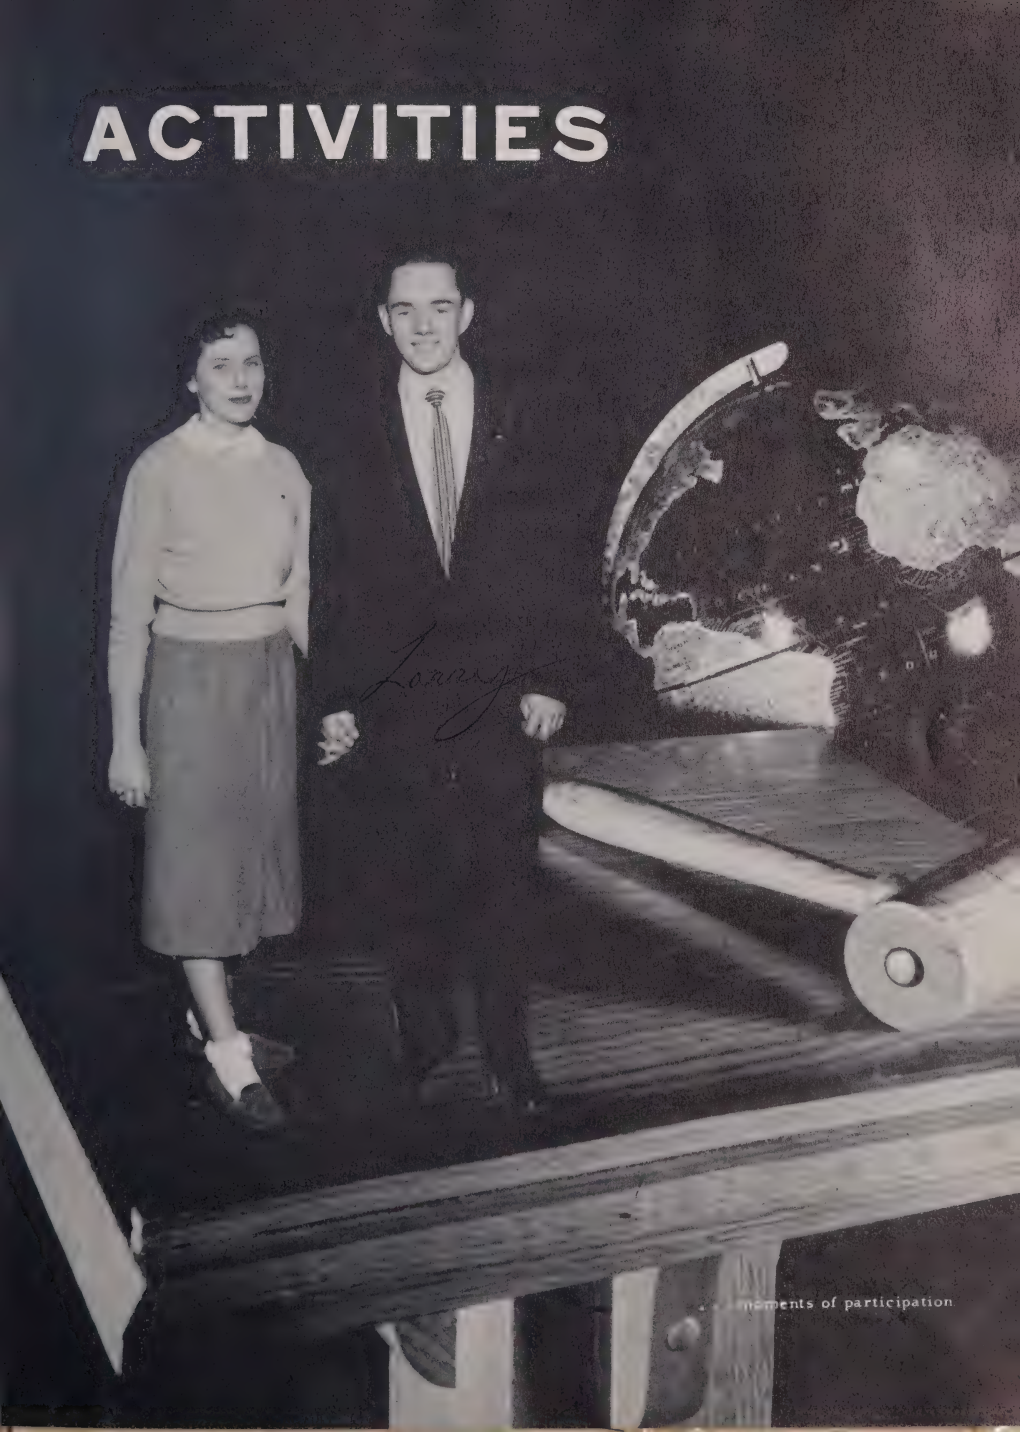
In The Classroom

It was in the classroom, as we studied together, that we came to know teachers and students who later became our friends. From the classroom we obtained our "book sense" and many experiences worth remembering.

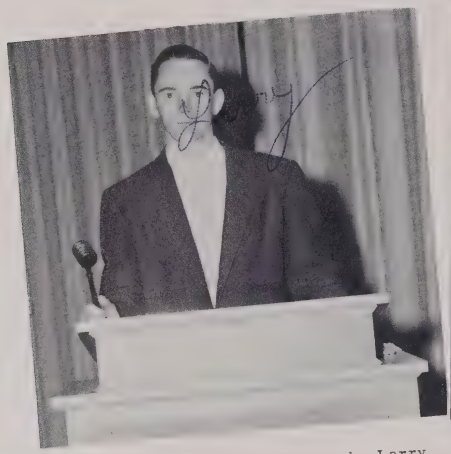
English Class

French Class

ACTIVITIES



moments of participation



The President of the Student Body, Larry Lee, presides at assembly programs.

Janie Holt, Jeanne Sims, Linda Linens, and Joyce Currin gather facts from handbooks for career day.

Student

Members of this year's Student Council are: Benje Lee, Jean Shanklin, Deanna Shoffner, Larry Lee, Clara Wilson, Janie Holt, Billy Moore, Julie Moser, Judy Hazelwood, Sarah Andrew, Gay Euliss, Linda Linens, Jeanne Sims, Joyce Currin, and Miss Gena Church, advisor.

Sarah Andrew, Clara Wilson, and Benje Lee are inspecting supplies in the student store, which is operated by the Council as a service to students.

Jean Shanklin, Gay Euliss, and Deanna Shoffner prepare to open the ice cream box, which is the main money-making project of the Council.

Council

OFFICERS

Miss Gena Church, advisor, and the executive officers serve as a steering committee for Council activities. Pictured with Miss Church are Julie Moser, secretary; Larry Lee, president; Billy Moore, treasurer; and Judy Hazelwood, vice-president.

The Student Council is the governing body of the students, and is composed of four officers and a representative from each home room. The Council meets once a week to discuss problems concerning the school. Their main projects are operating the student store and selling ice cream. A back to school party, Career Day, and Homecoming are annual events sponsored by the Student Council.

Mrs. Smith, Advisor, and Mary Jo Boswell, Associate Editor, spend much time proofreading copy.

Editor Barbara Hruslinski, after laying out the dummy, begins work on lay-out sheets.

Sue Harris, Activities Manager, checks with Circulation Manager, Larry Lee and his assistant, Buddy Massey, on the number of annuals that have been sold.

Advertising Manager Judy Meacham and her assistant, Jeanne Sims, give Photographer Bill Griffin instructions for taking ad pictures.

The Wag

Each year the presidents of the Student Cooperative Association, the National Honor Society, and the Senior Class form a committee to nominate persons for the minor positions on the W A G Staff. The major positions are filled by the preceding year's associates. The nominees must have an "A" average on English and a "B" average on all sophomore subjects. From these nominees the Senior Class elects The WAG Staff.

This year's Staff has worked diligently. The secretive work of the annual has been a thrill for us all.

Careful planning has helped to make the WAG better and more interesting this year. Lay-outs, copy, photography, and selling ads have taken a great deal of time and effort.

This WAG was designed with the idea of not only publishing a basically good yearbook, but presenting a picture of our school days here at G.H.S. It is our sincere wish that you will enjoy this annual now, and that it will serve in the future as a memorable record of the moments you shared with your teachers and fellow students.

Sports Editor Benje Lee and Art Editor Glenda Ritchie report their expenses to Business Manager Vickie Burke and her assistant, Sylvia Andrew.

Typing copy requires both speed and accuracy. The WAG typists are: Patsy Pugh, Kay Evans, Sandra Wood, and Shirley Pritchard.

The Cracker

Students look forward to each issue of The CRACKER. It reports recent school events and contains features of interest to the students.

The CRACKER is published every six weeks, and is distributed free of charge to all students. As we reread our old copies of The CRACKER, they give us many moments to remember.

Proofreading each stencil carefully is the responsibility of Editor Judy Hazelwood, her assistant Jimmy Euliss, and Mrs. McMillan, advisor.

Members of the CRACKER staff are: Glenda Lloyd, Sandy Moon, Sylvia Cole, Voncile Shepherd, Linda Graves, Judy Barnhart, Janice Bennett, Deloreess Holt, Melvin Phillips, Glenn Pruitt, Jerry Capps, Larry Gibson, and Jackie Rich.

Dramatic Club

Members of the Dramatic Club are not limited to acting experience only. They study the history and stages of drama, as well as phases of dramatic production such as lighting, scenery, and make-up. Mrs. R. S. Perry is director of the Dramatic group.

Whether reading scripts or experimenting with make-up, these players serve as critics for each other.

Glee Club

Under the direction of Mrs. Beth Oakes, the Glee Club of sixty voices provides musical programs for the school at various times during the year. Much time and effort is concentrated on the memorable White Christmas concert, and performances at graduation exercises.

When not rehearsing for special programs, these singers enjoy blending their voices for pleasure.

Future Teachers Of America

Soon many of these "Future Teachers" will no longer be students in a classroom, but instructors. Members of this organization are: Judy Owens, Kay Evans, Ronald Johnson, Sylvia Cole, Jeanne Sims, Jerry Capps, Judy Lyon, Dorothy James, Judy Meacham, Glenda Lloyd, Julie Moser, Sue Harris, Glenda Ritchie, Linda Graves, Deloreess Holt, Judy Hazelwood, Bill Griffin, Carolyn Burch, and Miss Gena Church, advisor.

Future Homemakers Of America

The motto of the F.H.A. is "Toward new horizons." The girls attend state and district rallies and some go to the F.H.A. camp at White Lake. This year they're trying to create new interests in careers in Home Economics. The advisor this year is Mrs. G. S. Taylor.

Office Receptionists

Bobby Cates, Billy Griffin, Glenn Pruitt, Sylvia Cole, Ronald Johnson, and Sue Harris assist Mrs. Clarkson, secretary, by serving as office receptionists at different periods during the day.

Art And Crafts

Miss Gena Church uses a loom to demonstrate a process of weaving to members of her Arts and Crafts class. Many original and decorative crafts are made and displayed by this group.

Girls' Games

Girls not taking physical education may join the Girls' Games group. Basketball, badminton, softball, and volleyball are the favorite games played by these girls.

Boys' Games

This activity provides boys not taking physical education with the chance to participate in sports regularly. Throughout the year many different sports are enjoyed.

Debating

The interest these students show in agriculture is not prompted by the desire to be a farmer, but by this year's query concerning the farm program. Members of the debating teams are: Judy Hazelwood, Deanna Shoffner, Katherine Swanner, Judy Meacham, Clara Wilson, Jeanne Sims, Barbara Hruslinski, Vicki Burke, Charles Thompson, Bill Griffin, Bruce Kernodle, Joanne Braxton, Cheyra Patton, and Mr. Greg Guthrie, advisor.

Dancing

A class in dancing instruction was included in our activity schedule this year for the first time. The purpose of this class is to encourage more students to dance. Mr. Lou Roshelli serves as dancing instructor.

Motion Picture Projection

The purpose of the Motion Picture Projection activity is to supply teachers with dependable, well-trained operators of audio-visual equipment. Those successfully completing the training are awarded certificates as qualified projectionists. Mrs. Jeffreys is advisor.

Science Club

The Science Club meets every Monday. This large group is divided into five small groups. Each week a different group has the program. They have different science topics such as zoology, aviation, electricity, weather, minerals, and rocks. Mr. Hill is advisor.

Library Assistants Club

These students assist the librarian, Mrs. Lee, in keeping the library in order. They also assist students with checking out books properly. Library assistants are: Compton Young, Evelyn Semiklose, Patsy Pugh, Mary Lou Allison, Ann Cornell, Barbara Allison, Joan Cornell, Jeff Newcomb, Don Guthrie, Marvin Crouse, Tommy Garner, Gail Bowers, Nadine Johnston, Carolyn Guthrie, Joyce Creasy, and Don Miller.

Driver Training

Sophomores who are not already licensed drivers are required to take Driver Training. The purpose of this training is for instruction in safe driving habits and to promote courtesy on the road. Mrs. M. D. Smith is advisor.

Marshals

Selection as a marshal is the greatest scholastic honor that can be bestowed upon a Junior. The marshals for this year are: Bill Stokes; Judy Bason, chief marshal; Mary Lou Allison; Carolyn Burch; Julie Moser; Mary Jo Boswell; and Jeanne Sims.

Those Who Serve Us Daily

We tend to take for granted the many services performed for us daily by these workers. We are grateful to the cafeteria and maintenance workers for their efficient service.

Basketball

The '57 team kept active in every minute of play. There was never a lull in thrills when the Red Quintet were racing up and down the court. Under the leadership of Coach Lou Roshelli, the team is building for the future.

Captains Charles Thompson and Ralph Stockard

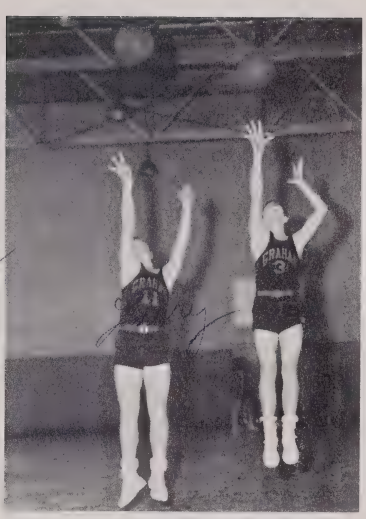
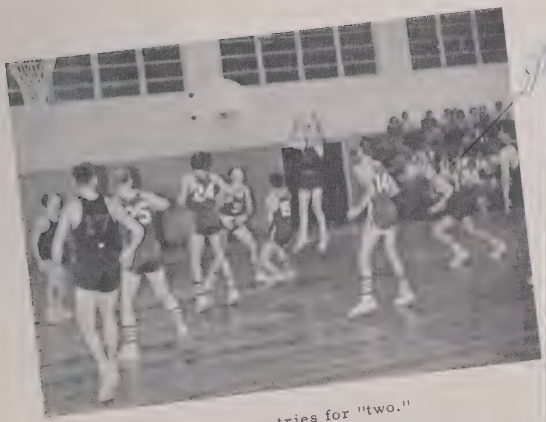
Time out for the Red Devils.



Jump shots take practice!



Thompson tries for "two."

Stockard scores with a jump shot.

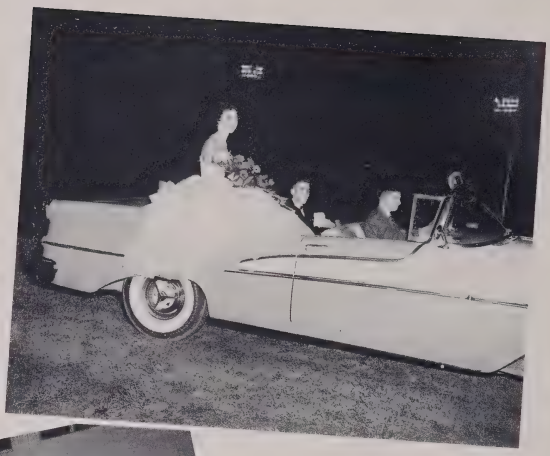
Pictured around Head Cheerleader Judy Meacham are: Linda Graves, Deloreess Holt, Nancy Layton, Jean McDonald, Joyce Currin, Ginny Hazelwood, Shirley Pritchard, and Judy Hazelwood.

The varsity cheerleaders have done a splendid job this year in boosting the school spirit and cheering our teams on to victory.

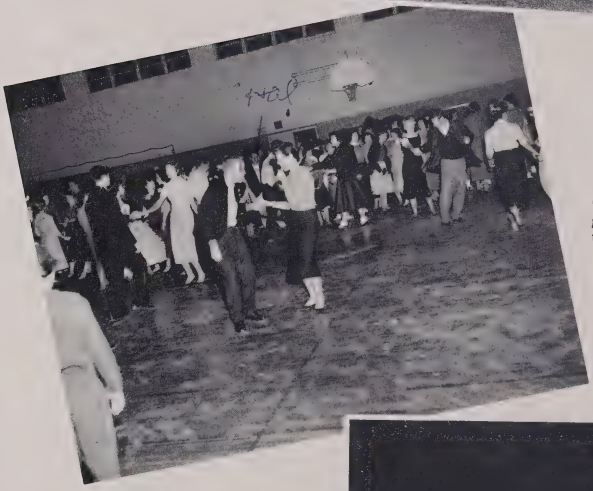
Let's Go Red Devils!

...moments of honor and joy

Homecoming



Deloreess Holt was elected Homecoming Queen by the student body and chose Jeff Newcomb as her escort.



Open house was held in the gym after the game as a reunion for all the "old grads."

The newly reorganized Graham band led the Homecoming parade and performed at halftime.

Homecoming

Sue Harris was elected maid-of-honor by the student body, and each class elected a representative to serve in the court. Members of the Homecoming court and their escorts were: Deanna Shoffner, Billy Stockard; Ginny Hazelwood, Hal McAdams; Deloreess Holt, Jeff Newcomb; Sue Harris, Lowell Wright; and Linda Lemons, Douglas Donley.

Our Red Devil team played hard, but was defeated by Hillsboro in an exciting contest.

The alumni joined with the cheering section as the cheerleaders led the Alma Mater.

TIP-TOE THRU' THE TULIPS WITH ME

Tip-toe to the window, by the window,
That is where I'll be,
Come tip-toe thru the tulips with me;
Tip-toe from your pillow,
To the shadow of a willow tree,
And tip-toe thru the tulips with me;
Knee deep--in flowers we'll stray
We'll keep--the showers away;
And if I kiss you in the garden,
In the moonlight,
Will you pardon me,
Come tip-toe thru the tulips with me.

It's been awfully nice being in school all of these years with you. We've had, I think, a lot of fun. I wish you much success in the future, lucky duck! See you in the world. The best wishes always.

Opportunities today in the textile industry are truly unlimited. Newman made and natural fibers, with their almost limitless uses, are continually opening newer and broader fields for manufacturing, research and development, design and merchandising.

Burlington Industries, a young organization, which had its beginning in North Carolina only 34 years ago, is today the world's largest textile concern.

Because of its broad diversification, Burlington offers to the young man or woman seeking a career in textiles truly unlimited opportunities in every phase of the textile field.

Dear,

I don't know where to start off, but I guess the first place I'd like to tell you about is the night of the party. You were the most beautiful boy I had ever seen. And you always had your eyes on me. And you would be talking some of the time and I would be thinking about you and I would wish you were talking to me. I know you better now, I think!!!

The first time I dated you, I didn't know what was going to happen. Believe it or not I was scared and didn't want to hurt you. But if I didn't why would I be dating you. At the parties I danced, I didn't know if you knew what you were doing or not. Because I know I do. You are a good dancer and boy!! Remember all the basketball games we went to and the time I was mad and wouldn't speak to you or wouldn't walk with you, boy was I a silly kid.

Anyway I'm glad you were so persistent that time I was over there to the with you. And now that I have you with I intend to keep you all your life.

Does not? I might fill yo two ad maybe three.

When you asked me to go [illegible]
August I would hope my [illegible]
[illegible] you so why that I didn't [illegible]
big. (I'm glad I have so good [illegible]).

I've [illegible] in my mouth [illegible]
I am trying to [illegible] I wonder if [illegible]
maybe if I'd [illegible] you [illegible] I [illegible]
I [illegible] you my [illegible] but you must [illegible] have what makes me [illegible]. Sometimes I'm me you [illegible] which I wonder if [illegible] it is up to you. [illegible]
[illegible] and I wonder if you can't see. Now, [illegible] so many things
I want to [illegible] but don't know how. I hope you like this the more I see after you [illegible] this because I am just trying what I wish I [illegible].
I wonder how you felt the weekend [illegible] you have gone, we could all be [illegible] and many that you have spent [illegible]. When I hit you that [illegible], that's [illegible]. I [illegible] want to see you again at the [illegible]. Must go to a [illegible] [illegible] you [illegible] me [illegible]. But you are a wonderful [illegible] that like I'm glad [illegible] my life [illegible]. Thanks for getting to [illegible] with me, I know you hate to go but I'm glad you do go with me.

I hope you can read this O.K. I can't write worth anything. I liked what you wrote in Barbara's book, about taking away her best friend, she got a laugh out of it. You should fill two books, I've written more in your book than all books put together. See I do think about of you, even at times I don't care it but I love you very much. I hope we can date each other to the Jr. Sr. next year and still going steady. Most girls would love to have a boy as good as you to be their steady, but me at times I want just for myself. So I hope you understand me.

I hope we can go to the beach together, we will have a wonderful time.

May God bless you in all you do and Don I hope you marry a person who will love and care for you right, I don't think that will be me, I sorry but I wish I could say I would be worth you. May you gain every-thing you want out of life and live a long ends happy one.

Love always,
Sandra

P.S. I love you very much!!!

"Don"

Here's to another friend at Graham. I hope you have the best of luck throughout your life. Hurry and pass driver's training and we might be able to date together.

Your Friend
Tim Bason

Don

I've not known you long but, I've grown to like you as a very good friend. Our English Class has been an exciting one hasn't it?

Lots of Luck in years to come,
Masato

Hon.
We already don't know you very well, but
from what I know of you,
you seem to be very sweet.
The very best of luck to you in the future and I'll see you next year.

See ya!
